Jerry Valley's stage career spans over 37 years and has given him the opportunity to appear all over the world as one of the finest entertainers in show business today. He has been the featured hypnotist on the QE2, Princess, Countess, Sagafjord and Oceanic cruise ships, appearing with Hollywood stars such as Norm Crosby, Steve Allen, Jane Meadows, Barbi Benton, Jim Bailey, Jack Jones, Vic Damone, The Platters, Robert Klein and Phyliss Diller. In addition, Jerry has been the guest star on many television shows such as Good Day, People Are Talking and 20/20. In 1992, Jerry Valley was the recipient of the prestigious President's Award presented to him by the National Guild of Hypnotists. In 1994, the IHHF presented Jerry with the first-ever award for Excellence in Stage Hypnotism at ceremonies in Atlantic City.

Tommy Vee has audiences "rolling in the aisles" with his unique style of stage hypnotism, where the volunteers become the real "Stars" of the show. He has made thousands of exciting presentations on a number of cruise ships and in many fairs, corporations and luxurious resorts. His credits include shows at numerous colleges and universities throughout the U.S. and he is always an enormous hit at the West Tennessee State Fair in Jackson, TN, and in Canada at: Quyon Fair, Quebec, the Fredricton Fair and the Chatham Fair in New Brunswick, and the Hants Fair in Nova Scotia. For the past ten years, Tommy has been in an intensive training program with world-famous hypnotist, Jerry Valley, and has studied with the "Dean of American Hypnotists," Ormond McGill. His show is outrageously funny!
